WELL FOWLER - CAN YA BELIEVE ITS ALMOST OVER! I DON'T KNOW HOW I WOULD HAVE MADE IT THRU THE MIDDLE OF THE YEAR W/OUT ALL YOUR VOTES, YAR GUM AND YAR NEIGHBORS! YOUVE REALLY BEEN GREAT. DON'T YA EVER FORGET ALL THE heavy TIMES WEVE HAD HOW ALMOST
OUR EXPEDITION TO HIPPIE LAND AND FEEDING THE SQUIRRELS
AT THE CAPITOL. THERE WAS ALSO THE TIME I DIDN'T EAT LUNCH WHO YAO WERE! - REMEMBER TRAFFIC! YOUVE BEEN A FANTASTIC SON BATHING PARTNER TOO! KEEP THE RED
BOOTS & REMEMBER ME BY THEM. WRITE ME THIS SUMMER AND TAKE IT EASY. DON'T DO ANYTHING DRASTIC, AND NOTHING I WOULDN'T DO. STAY OFF THOSE FOOT PILLS
AND STICK TO DR. PARKER'S SPECIALS - THEY'LL DO YA A LOT MORE GOOD! SURE LUV YA LOADS,

P.S. say hello to that wink of a married man in your old year book, when ya
get home!

Just wanted to say
Hi, have a nice
Summer

P.E.G. - J.J.W.N

Dear Mol,

Boy, I'm the first one to sign in the front (Hey man, that's pretty groovy!) Well, sweetie, I don't know where to begin. I can't even remember the very first time I got to know you! Remember when you & Benk were rooming ~~together~~ together (I'm sure you remember, that's a dumb question to ask!)

This year has been really crazy, but a not on the other hand! Some of the fights that went on were so stupid, but in a way I really learn from them - but I won't talk about those kind of things

Remember
the time you helped fix
my hair
that one night. I'd the time Poncho took us all to Collegiate?
That was so much fun!

I'd do anything to come to Winston-Salem
this summer.

ad see everyone, ya know I don't even know Sally, ad everyone else does!

I don't want to take up all the room, so take care & you know how much I'm gonna miss you this summer. Have fun in W.S.

Be Bad! © Posey (that damn yankel!)
(P.S. Thank you for the hutter shirt you made me!)

Well Roommate Molly - where in the hell am I supposed to begin. First I'll thank you from rescuing me from a queer and ^{me} moving in with you. Damn! I don't think I could've stood Cass-ass much longer. Even your early morning moods (ha!) are better than her regular.

Don't ever forget the illegal overnight you pulled at the Executive. Just pass the bottle of booze around! Then you and Aussi was just to much! Damn! that was the funniest week-end. Remember Maria's party. We were really gone, ugh sweetheart? Then the next day Winston came and I dated Bill. Remember all of the times I forced you to write him and tell him all that stuff.

Damn! Don't forget spring vacation and all of the problems after that. Will S.M. and G.S. And the climbs of the popular ladder. The poems and the puns and the laughs and the tears. I'm glad that's all over with, it got on my nerves.

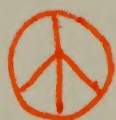

Oh! Don't forget all the times we've been late for French because we slept to late. And all of the times you talked to me in my sleep.

You must not forget that you my dear roommate are the president of the one and only fairy club with the honorable name of Fowler Fuck. You can never resign or give up your tremendous honor either. Too bad Molly - clem's da breaks! Do you still have your star?

Don't forget all of the good concerts that we went to. Like Tull, Cat Stevens, Traffic, and Chicago! They were so much fun. Don't forget the morning after Tull when we were so dead (at least I was) so we skipped church and Hiney believed us when we said we went. Gullable...

Thank so much for lighting all my cigarettes before I knew how. And being so sweet to me and giving paper when I needed it. I love you,

Kat (pussy)

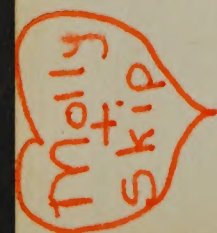

Peace, Love,

Woodstock, Waterbeds, Marlboro-Menthols, groovy-cool.

WANT YOUR FRIEND

"I want a date"
The ole familiar phrase!

Don't even forget the time when we went out to dinner with your mom and then played bandito in the international safeburg. How those napkins are haster! People must have thought we were nearly fucked up. That was so funny. Then the next ~~Monday~~ when we ate a whole lot of donuts.

Love,
Margaret

Molly,
It's really been a blast ^(ear) rooming across the hall from you this year. I'm glad you got off the C.P. hang-up 'cause it kind of messed you up (like the night we went to the coffee house!) Well, anyway, keep your head on your shoulders and your eyes in your sockets. Have a good time this summer and come see me.

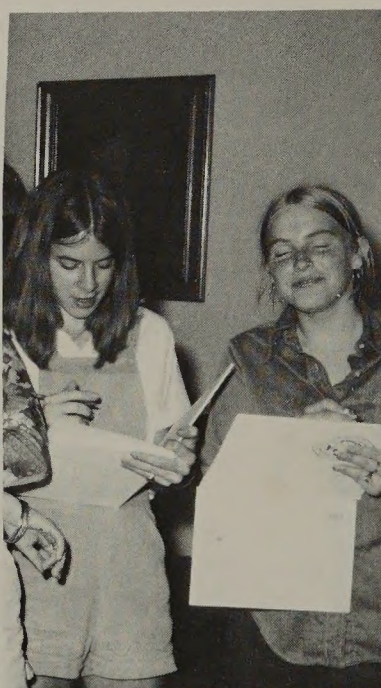

Molly -
Well sweetheart it's the end of the year - thank God! Poor you with 3 more years. If we stuck it out I suppose you can. There's always the good side of St. C. like... Well anyway I love getting to know you this year. This is getting queer. Come see me in Pennsylvania next year. If you need an excuse for a weekend & can't rely on your cousin just sign my name. Love, Jo.

I'm a witch and I'll go get Olivette's frog and turn you into his wife!

Monique,
Well how have you hated your first year at St. Catherine's? Didn't you love being in the same class with this feizy haired stretch freak? Bien sûr! Anyhow have fun this summer and write to me. If you can't read that tell me and I'll tell you again.

I am a part of all that I have met;
Yet all experience is an arch where through Gleams that untraveled world whose margin fades
Forever and forever when I move . . .

 DEAR MOLLY,
 WELL, NOW, CAN'T THINK
 OF A THING TO SAY. Right now
 I'm soliciting for friends - I'm a'fear'd that I'm gonna need them all - (Especially next year.) - Please be nice to me!!!
 This year's been great - But next year! (Wow!) Think of your responsible leaders - (a force, perhaps?) - I'd better go - Love,

Dedication

Through the co-operative efforts of many generous and enthusiastic people, a new library-chapel was dedicated to Miss Turner, one of the most esteemed and loved educators in the school's history. Turner Hall, our new library-chapel is a fine and beautiful instrument of teaching and learning. It encourages people to share themselves with others. It seems that with a little personal co-operation, Turner Hall holds limitless opportunity and potential for everyone. Therefore, we, the class of 1972, wish to dedicate the Quair to Turner Hall, and all it stands for and can do for others; special appreciation goes to all those who helped to make this wonderful facility available to us this year.

Well, you just gave me about the 3rd dirty look cause I'm taking so long to sign this thing but God Damn, Fowler, you're so damn popular ^{now} that it's taken an hour to find someplace to sign!!

~~typical huh?~~ Hasn't Bible been panic city?! Chaplin, that poor guy, has definitely never been bored during lecture.
 金 Whatever will I do next year when 唐 you return in the liquid state from the good ol' diet w/o anyone to talk to at that Fun, yummy diet table?!

Mrs. Liu's diverse background has made her a unique member of our community. She's a native of Shanghai, and has studied in China, France, and the United States, receiving the Bachelor of Arts degree from Smith College and the Master's of Arts degree in History at Columbia University. She was a delegate from China to the League of Nations conference in Geneva, Switzerland. Her experiences, in China and in diplomatic circles have given her a philosophic serenity and an effervescent wit which have made her a special and valuable part of St. Catherine's. Lib's Enemy

Dear Molly,
 I hate writing year books, but I'll do my best! I want to tell you. I've loved having you next door and I really hope you haven't felt to hemmed in! This year has all gone so fast, from the times I heard 'someone' cutting the screen in the next room, to the piece of popcorn for my birthday to the Sr. party, to that hateful night of May 2nd when the blizzard hit Bacot II and you ran around in that damn poncho! It's worth it all - don't despair - you eventually graduate and wonder where the hell all those 3 or 4 years went. Then you're sad to go and leave your friends (9's too) and happy IF you get into college where you wanted to go.

Behave. Have a good time but don't get caught!

Love,
 Sarah

I'm really - this was for a - well not for a birthday for you. Well you had your birthday today. In August - birthday in August. And if you want a shiny shirt with a picture of you standing on a beach or at I can get that. I can get you the better part of this year. You have a fantastic class - and well, the new year is here next year, I should be better. Well is it possible have any pictures. I hope I'll get a picture - birthday picture. I hope I'll get a picture 4000. I was the biggest picture of first year. I hope I'll get a picture. I hope I'll get a picture.

I'm going to be at Hall's reception so I'll come and take you out on the executive weekend. And I'll come and take you out on the this year will be repeated. As the picture says. Here here - be good and be happy I'll be with you. Love always, Linda

Classes

When I was a little kid about ten years ago
I used to ask Why leaves fell, Why nights came, Why the moon was a fingernail sometimes,
And Why the seatide rolled backward and forwards.

They told me that leaves fell from trees so
The naked branches would have more room
For fresh baby leaves in the springtime.

They said that nighttime came because daytime would soon grow.

They told me that the tide went out
So the tide could come in,
Because if the tide went out and never came in

Imagine how deep the water would be at my shore, and how shallow at someone else's.

When I was a little kid about two years ago
I used to ask Why tears fell, Why emptiness came, Why the world was a thornbush sometimes,
And Why the feelings I have for people and their feelings for me go in and out,
The difference now is that they don't have to tell me anything
Because I have not forgotten.

Do you know how many children
 Rise each morning blithe and gay?
 Can you count their jolly voices,
 Singing sweetly day by day?
 God hears all the happy voices,
 In their merry songs rejoices:

If I had a hundred dollars to spend,
Or maybe a little more,
I'd hurry as fast as my legs would go Straight to the animal store.

I wouldn't say, "How much for this or that?"
"What kind of dog is he?"
I'd buy as many as rolled an eye,
Or wagged a tail at me!

I'd take the hound with the drooping ears
That sits by himself alone;
Cocker and cairns and wobbly pups
For to be my very own.

I might buy a parrot all red and green,
And the monkey I saw before.
If I had a hundred dollars to
spend,
Or maybe a little more.

Smoke will pollute the air,
Especially at the fair.
Cigars and cigarettes in peoples' hands,
They should crumble them up and throw them in cans.

Instead you see them all around,
And by the time you're gone they're all over the ground.
If you'll stop doing that, it will stop polluting the air And that's what you should do when you're at the fair.

Choking to death. Do you know that ya'll never taught me how to light a Cigarette? Well you didnt so that means i cant smoke until i learn. Ahh, shit! And remember the time we gave u a surprise Birthday party & you walked in on us while we were setting it up? That was so funny. And was se funny. And remember French Class when we were always falling asleep & mrc Bain yelled her fuckin' head off at us?! And remember all those groovy parties. 5. 2 of all i went to & the fun exciting weekends when we use to sit & look at each other.

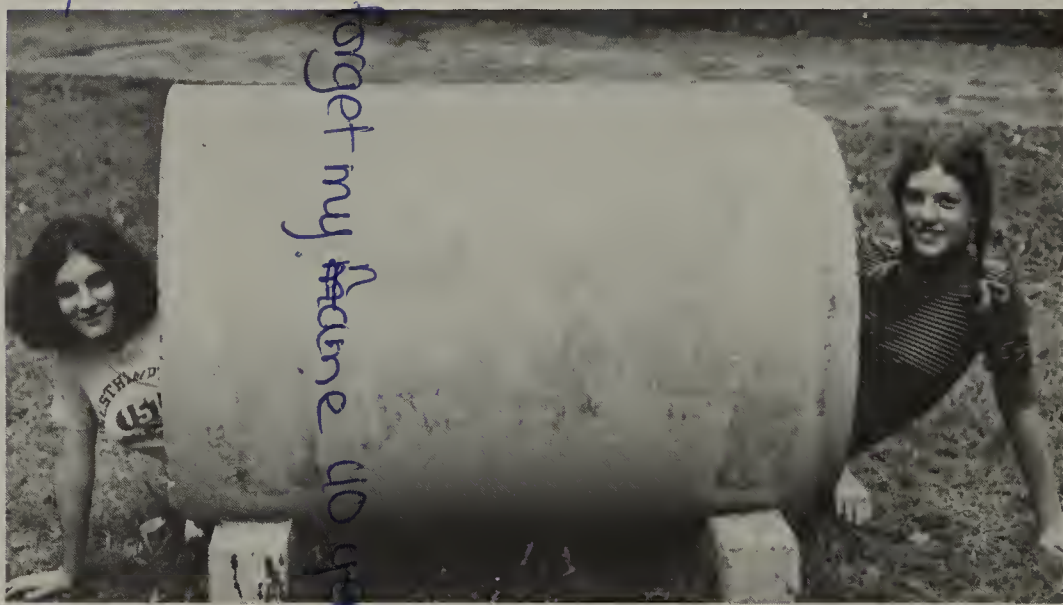

man, how groovy And remember all those fights I had with Ginny Heaven forbid. And also that time i got sent up before Mrz Force. (the bitch!) shit I have never known a lady like that before in my life. Well i gotla run. I'll always remember you as one

My Dearest Molly,
How could I ever have made it thru the year without our "iced" tea & "hot" tea! (I wish I had some now) Or going to the rapids, or playing "Duck-Duck". If anyone is depressed we'll take them out for an ice cream cone! No, really - You're one of my favorite buddies this year - See you next year -

Love,
Scottie

Dearest molly —
 you've been one helluva true faithful 9 in this school! It's been great screaming at you all year and talking w/ you and sal about bosom sizes! Thank ^{like wow - I'm} for all the little smiles ^{gonna be one!}

You've got to come up and see me and you know I'll come see you even if I have to thumb. Remember the P.S. party. Damn! This you already. And you are not totally unacceptable, like my going away present said. I love you anyway and you've been a great roommate. I'll wear the suit now that I look back on the year. If you wear the smiley button I care of you, you can even smile in the morning!! It's a hard thing to do. I'll always wear my red toenail polish on one foot because it reminds me of you.

Dear Molly

Well, It doesn't seem like the year's almost gone - It's been 9 months!
It doesn't seem like half that much, yet it seems like more. We've been through a lot this year, ups and downs - Probably what I most remember you for is Bacot II and Coffeehouse. And then meeting your Mom in Winston. She was so funny. All those times, with nothing to do on Sat nites - so we'd truck on over to Coffeehouse - Course that reminds me of Laurie getting hurt and I shudder every ~~the~~ time I think about it. Ya know - I think when we leave - my senior year - Tules, Lar, me, etc (+ you great 9's can help!)
we've gotta paint the Doc's wall! It's too plain - Just old brick! Oh yes - How 'bout the "Executive Committee"! I learned my lesson. Never again (Holiday Inn next time!!) Poor ~~me~~ Hugh, you - Tules - but better than the floor! I've never slept so bad in my life. You were quite talkative that nite!! Like you didn't stop!! I'm just kidding - It was all funny except the getting caught. And you confessed! But I guess you're pretty glad you did - A load off yer mind.

Listen love! You'll be back next year - So will I - So we've got a lot more memories to make. Hope we're ~~near~~ on the same hall next year - Anyway - be good this summer - Raise a little for me - I'll see you soon -

Love ya
Nancy P.

A smile, an understanding word, an initial glimpse of comprehension; each educational experience becomes a part of the multi-faceted whole of an individual. To those who have not only helped us learn what we had to know, but who truly educated us by teaching us to question, the class of 1972 extends its deepest gratitude. You have helped us become a part of the unique entities that we are.

The Headmaster's Message

One day early this year a girl who had had a bad week said to me, "Nobody seems to have time to be kind any more." Then in the next couple of breaths she went on all unconsciously to say some kind things.

That little episode expresses for me this year at St. Catherine's. It has been a year of change, sometimes too hectic. Yet the real qualities of people, especially their best qualities, are forever bobbing to the surface. There is a dynamic equilibrium in our community life that makes us yearn for changes and yet cling to tradition and security.

I have nothing but praise for the way our girls and teachers balance their way through the year, producing great quantities of high-quality learning, and at the same time keeping our whole big apparatus surging along healthily — League and student government; sports; worship and service work; publications and drama and music and so many other things — yet still finding time for buoyancy, the kooky joke, the friendship, the thoughtful touch, the moment of listening.

besides that...
our poems,
and out list and sad listen, hidden depths of secrecy.

My dearest backwards "7" Mol, well you are almost an old girl - aren't you excited? Not only that but you have 3 yrs. to look forward to - Now, remember, woman, I will be more than happy to keep your car for you next year. Also, we'll have a true ball (like B. Rob. 2 yrs. ago - ✓) when I have my license - I get it in less than a month. I am really glad you have decided to stay and stick it out because I would miss you if you leave...

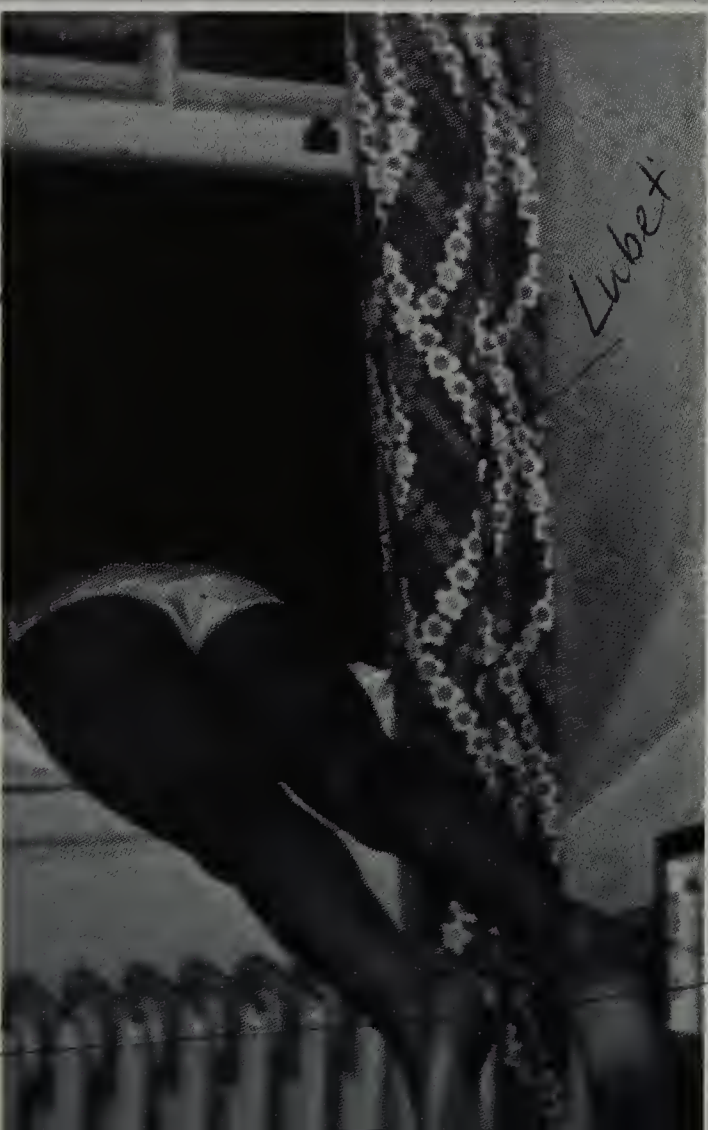

I'm just GLEAMIN' that Bobby T didn't take your many liberal posters down. I couldn't HACK that. Richmond lingo is THE PITS. The nicest thing that happened to me this year was getting to know you. Please note, Mol, I am signing on the ACTION page! And, heh, you're right - that's the only thing we've had in this booming metropolis. Don't forget Richmeats. The never ending talks about your ex-roomie + her private life, Charlie, my man (right) - Ryan, burning cigarettes, WFS, St Cat's, our big trip to Phil's, the search for Action-filled excitement (we never had to look very hard, did we? - it was always right across the street. Well I'm so excited that you met Mr. Horny Touch (Tim Wood). You're the only person to sunbathe w/ (I get overly-stimulated at the sight of your almost bare body) and, of course, we are the tannest bodies in the entire world. Mol, we really have to do some celebrating for the yr. ends, ya know what I mean, woman? I want you to know I go your ex-roomie + her for your body, etc. You are such a true groov - How many times were u nice enough to let me borrow things?

Lubex

How did I meet you? Oh yeah, I was be-bopping along w/ my bean (heh, you're so smart - I was w/ Dandy Randy) and I see these two chicks move to the side of the road when the hear the sound of his hotrod Lincoln — (Peace Grease). Anywho, I say - Give dem babes a ride. He go - OK dokey. So I met you + truly thought you were a Jr. (and you ^{are} were experienced than ~~many~~ Sr. Day Students.) I thought you were so cute - w/ your many rings, etc. So we started gabbing + then I found out that we were both on Creative Arts Mag (w/ a tag - two, in fact) - but you never made it to the meetings (Phil + Tara keep you by the tube). Well, you sixtoed woman, guess who else I'm starting to like?

Blonde boy, himself. And Lorentz Ryan Hodges, Ryan, Ryan, Ryan, Ryan, Ryan, Ryan, Ryan, Ryan.
I wish I could stop liking him but 3 months are not as bad as 2 yrs - right?

I have loved you this yr. little backwards 7' boarder. And so has Alvin - your true man. That yanabr is so horny. Constantly boking up ANYTHING. I miss Bumpert. She introduced us but we both forgot. I miss Lili - dumb girl. I miss Anne Merrill.
She's so sweet. We'll talk about those

And in the sweetness of friendship let there be laughter and sharing of like pleasure. For in the dew of little they things the heart finds its morning and is refreshed.

were hardly here. I hope everyone comes back next year. Viva Hot tamales, rings, diets, flipflops, Boys, tennis players (male, that is) who play on St C. courts, white houses that get busted butter pecan ice cream, driving in the rain after Jr Day Boy-Boarder Game, etc.

I love you, Melli. Write me in Maine.

Love Ya Muchly,

Dearest Molly -

It's been a very good year (especially knowing you has helped make things go alot better for me. I am really glad that I could help (?) you with your math this year (what would I have given to have a tutor this 1st few years of my math life!) Keep working - I know you're doing to make it into Math I like me

I'm always at a loss for what to say in yearbooks because it always is difficult to put into words what you really want to say - Just know that I am really glad that you come here and I am even more glad that I know you

Be good next year (or prefect Campbell will get ya) - but until then - good luck, good health and good breath. Keep smiling and stay cool and help the world find rainbows - love to you - Emily C.

Well well Moll -
 I've been ~~knowing~~ knowing you this year it really has. You are about my favorite underclassman - but I don't really think of you that way (are you?) - I mean We've had some pretty good talks here & there over the year. - I'm glad you were on my hall. I hope the few times I tried to help you - they weren't idle attempts.
 My advice isn't the best you know.
 Science wouldn't be the same w/ out
 you to tell me what my homework was.
 Bell is a farce.
 Next year will be different and a definite experience.

Dear Molly,

Hi! I'm really sorry I didn't get to know you very well because you were on a different hall and really, I hated you. But now, I feel a lot different.

I like ya' or at least what I know about you. Next year we'll have to give a party up for the seniors like you'll did last year. I really (and I'm not bull-shitting) like I sometimes do, hope that you're on my hall or I'm on yours. I'd like to get to know the side of the 9's.

May 10

Well woman, here it is, only 3 more weeks till the end of school. It's really going to be fun getting out of this place for three whole months. I knew your heart breaks at the thought of not seeing St. Cathy's all that time - but that's the way it goes kid! You've got to admit that we've all had some really great times here though! I mean people, and new things, and all that. I sit here now - and I feel like I've known you all my life - and yet I haven't even known you a whole year. It's really weird how when you're torn away from all your friends at home - and become so much closer to friends here.

But anyway - don't forget all the 'groovy' classes we've shared this year, especially fantastic first period! Every-2 seconds, "monique, vous le dormez pas dans mon classe!" (or something like that!)

So be a real good little girl this summer - 'cause I ~~won't~~ won't be there to take care of you all the time - and Hurry and come to the beach, ^{and see me!} - we're going to have a real ball!

Bye and Good luck in everything you do!

Lindy  alias

Oh! Baby come on!

which skip?
"my" skip or "you" skip??

Boogaloo Down Broadway!
YEA!!
Come on! Shake that thing!

really:

5-10-72

Hi! Hey that gal!

I really don't know what to say that hasn't been said about 50 times already - just remember - Maria's party? (hee-hee!) that was the first time I ever saw Chip (chuckle Booger?)

And the time I went home with you & we almost missed our plane in Lynchburg! And the guy from Pikeville! And the roller coaster plane ride! (uh-hu!) And that good lookin' guy of yers! And... SALLY!!! And of course let's not forget the ducks! (Quack!) And how when I first got there y'all tried to kill me with a door! And now every 5 minutes I went to look up those people's phone #!!!

Oh! NEVER, EVER oooo forget THE CHARLIE Parrish & Grant McGuire (Wat Willie! Teehee!)

Listen mol, I know we've had our "slight" disagreements and arguments - but forgive and forget, ok? Our friendship is a very great thing - it means a hell of a lot to me and I don't ever want to let it go. Some - when friends can argue & practically hate each other then become even closer friends - it's got to be a friendship that'll last - Anyway - what are friendships that don't have arguments? If you agree all the time it's pull!

Never forget the Executive (Woo! Woo!) And Aussie! (Woo! Woo! Woo!...) And the time we went to Cattleman's with your mom & went to International Safeway & shot everyone!

Well - just remember above all!

I love ya & I'll miss ya like hell!

Better come up this summer & ya

BETTER come back next year!

Love ya!
Ginny (Earl the Peet!)

- Molly -
 Well, what can I say - that you're a great 4th grader & I love ya to death. We've had our ups & downs just like everybody - but it looks like everything turned out ok! Next year if we're back we'll have a lot of good times, especially if I have a car up here - we're a lot alike ya know - we've had our share of hardships, but "The 2nd year is better" - it's getting better everyday - If ya ever need a shoulder to cry on, or someone to bitch at - I'll be around - What else could ya want besides a tuff (HA) Sr. like me - We can really break some more rules - Stay as crazy as you are & you'll be OK!!
 & that's pretty damn good in my book - Love ya Always
 Karen Sr. '73

Dear Molly,

Well, another year is almost up! (Although this is the 1st for both of us) Gee, (get that phrase will ya) I don't know what to say. (Everybody always writes that) Lord help me, what can I say? Oh yeah... you've been awful nice about my music & junk. (One of few who actually could sit through the mess) I'm certainly glad I got to know ya early. It makes a big difference.
 Since you'll be back next year as a Soph. I'll look forward to seeing you handle that year. As for me, my ring will be calling me. Have lots of fun during summer & make up for lost time. That's exactly what I'm a gonna do!

Be good, hear?

Love,
 Connie

Dear Molly!
 Hope the year here
 has been okay for you - I remember the first day
 we saw all the flowers,
 you strange new creatures,
 and thought you were so cute and sophisticated -
 Now we know better - just kidding - You'd better come back next year and make
 '72-'73 even better -
 Love always,
 Bette

Well - we've actually lived through Mrs. Bell's science class - I don't believe it - that had to be the worst class. Well - we'll be out soon for the summer - have fun and raise hell - See ya next year - ok? Love, Sarah

Ohay Molly
 I hear you'll be back next year
 as a Soph. I'm praying you won't be I can't wait to see you very much!
 Love,
 Bette

Dear Molly - I'm sorry I never have anything to say in people's quans, but you've been really sweet and I hate to see someone else around here besides me has had problems and a sometimes bad sense of humor (well, may be you did, but I'm trying to make myself feel better) Sorry I completely dropped up your quans with this dumb note! 1/2 Judy Williams

Mol -
It's been neat knowing you -
Your my fav -
I know -
on the Western Tour. You better write me!!

Hi Mols!
Well here goes the same ole stuff - It's been a great year and I hope you come back next year. I hope I meet some of your friends better write me!!
LOVE ya!
Betsy

Hey Molly!
Well have a great summer - I know you will -
It's been an OK yr. See ya in the fall I hope! You'd better come back!
See ya - Luv always, Margy

Ludo again

Hey me!
Well I guess you can agree to the fact that this has been some year! I know now that you have adjusted to the environment at St. Cat's but the question is are you coming back? Well are ya? Anyway - you write me okay! 307 Seneca Rd, Richmond maybe someday I'll be able to come down to good old Winston-Salem! Have a terrific summer and write me!
Love ya,
Nancy

Dear Molly - well, finally this year is over & no more Mrs. Bell! Sitting beside you was really fun, though. You better come back next year after a great summer. Don't get into too much trouble, though! Love,
Nancy

Love ya,
Nancy
I'm really glad you're coming back! I know you'll have a great summer. I'll be able to come down to good old Winston-Salem! Have a terrific summer and write me!
Love ya,
Nancy
